NO LOOKING BEHIND FOR MOOSE, HE SAYS

Joseph Walker Says Old Party Can't Act as Check Upon Real Progressives.

BOSTON, Feb. 23.-One thousand five hundred Bay State Progressives sat down to the first annual Bull Moose dinner in the South Armory last night. Many prominent men and women were present. They applauded with enthusiasm when Joseph Walker, former speaker, exclaimed;

"My friends, our hands are now set to the plow. There is no looking back. We must fight this thing through to the end.

This utterance was understood as an expression of sentiment against amalgamation with the Republican party. Charles Sumner Bird, Progressive candidate for governor at the last election; the Rev. George L. Perin of Boston, Mary Antin, a New York writer, who has been a prominent worker for the Pregressive cause; Henry Allen, chairman of the Progressive party of Kansac, and Norman White, of Massachusetts, also advised against it.

First Birthday.

This was the first birthday party of the Progressive workers of Massachusetts, At 5:30 o'clock yesterday aftermoon the vanguard of the speakers began to arrive at the armory in Irvington street. Standing in the reception half was Mary Antin, Charles Sumer Bird, and Henry Allen, The three principal guests of the evening. On entering the reception room guests were taken in charge by a Bull Moose usher shaking hands with the three guests they passed into the great dining hall.

taken in charge by a Bull Moose usher and escorted to the receiving line. After shaking hands with the three guests they passed into the great dining hall.

The banquet tables were arranged in a new style. Instead of the usual rows of board, with the long speakers' table at the front of the hall, the tables at last evening's dinner were arranged so that no one table was more prominently situated than another.

There were hundreds of little tables, with seats for half a dozen persons at each. To use the expression of one of the waiters: "There weren't no speakers' table at all." The poor Bull Mooser sai at the same board with the rich Bull Mooser, and the speakers were put right down among the "common people." down among the "common people."

Exactly at 6 o'clock a bugle call was sounded and every one sat down.
The Rev. George L. Cady, of Dorchester then arose and invoked divine blessing. The band stationed in one corner struck up "Onward Christian Soldiers." All present rose to their feet and joined in the chorus.

Arthur D. Hill, chairman of the Progressive legislative committee, and the other speakers followed.

Joseph Walker is the newest acquisition to the Massachusetts Progressive party, and his remarks drew close attention. He said in part:

"I am a Progressive and have been fighting the Progressive Republicans" who clung to the belief that the best hope of success lay in fighting the Progressive fight within the Republican party. But I renounced my allegiance to the Republican party and joined the Progressive party, there to fight for Progressive party and joined the Progres lican party and joined the Progressive party, there to fight for Progressive principles under Progressive leader. MORE STATES RATIF Popularity of Amendment May Have Its Effect on Deadlock in Illinois Legislature.

Washington that an additional State legislature has ratified the direct eleclions amendment to the Constitution, Since it was announced Saturday that twenty-three States had ratified the amendment, word has been received that ratification has been completed in New Hampshire. This makes twenty-four States out of the thirty-six necessary. Furthermore, each house of the Ohio legislature has passed a resolution of ratification, though the two resolutions are different. It is expected the two resolutions will be harmonized. Legally there is a question whether Ohio has not aiready ratified the measure. Countries in Ohio, twenty-five States have not already ratified the measure. Counting in Ohio, twenty-five States have ratified the amendment.

The States whose legislatures have completed ratification are:

Massachusetts, Montana, New York, Kansas, California. Michigan, Oregon, Ifaho Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Arkansas, North Dakota, Vermont, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Colorado, Wyoming. West Virginia, Nevada, Washington, Texas, Arizona, Illinois and, in effect, Ohio.

New Hampshire being entered into the fold and Ohio being seemingly assured, ratification in eleven more States will may have an effect in ending the dead-locks in Illinois and New Hampshire. This is especially true of Illinois Should the legislature there adjourn without choice, it would probably mean the Scn-ators would be chosen by the direct method.

The machine politicians of Hilinois are not eager for that and, under the pressure of the speedily coming reform, are likely to find a way to settle differences

READY TO DISSOLVE RAILROAD MERGER

Wickersham Goes to St. Louis to Present Union and Southern Pacific to Court.

Attorney General Wickersham lef last night for St. Louis, where he will present tomorrow to Judge Smith, in the United States District Court, the plan for the dissolution of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific merger as agreed upon two weeks ago by Department of Justice officials and represenment of Justice officials and representatives of the Harriman lines.

The disintegration scheme contemplates the complete divorcement of the Uentral Pacific from trom the Southern Pacific, and the disposition of 1.266.509 chares of stock of the latter corporation. The United States Supreme Court in a decision handed down December 2, held that the holding of 46 per cent of the Southern Pacific stock by the Union Pacotic and its subsidiary corporation was a violation of the Sherman law, and ordered that dissolution plans be submitted to the lower court by March 2.
